From the Paris Gazette, dated Feb. 3.

Warſaw, January 5.

THE King of Poland has ſent to the Cardinal Primate, who continues in this City, a certain Prieſt nam'd Archemberski, to make ſome Propoſals to him. This choice is the more wonder'd at, becauſe this Eccleſiaſtick is very odious to the Cardinal Primate, who has refus'd to ſee him and give him Audience: His Poliſh Majeſty will be oblig'd therefore to employ the Pope's Nuncio to make his Intentions known to the Cardinal, which are to deſire him to uſe his utmoſt Endeavours to put an end to the Differences between him and the King of Sweden, by a ſpeedy Accommodation. The Cardinal Primate is well enough diſpos'd to it out of his own Inclination; but it will be difficult for him to ſucceed in it, as long as his Swediſh Majeſty perſiſts, as he does at preſent, in his Deſign to execute a Project which he has form'd againſt the King of Poland. The Swediſh Army is divided into 4 Bodies, the firſt of which is ſtill in the Poliſh Ruſſia, under the Command of General Steinbock, who continues to exact great Contributions in that Country; his Head Quarters are at Jaroſlaw, he makes his Troops obſerve an exact Diſcipline, and has caus'd the Palatine of Volhinia to be brought thither, together with a rich Booty which he has made, near the Mountains that divide Hungary from Poland: He continues to preſs the Great General of the Crown, and the Nobility of Ruſſia, to declare for the King of Sweden, threatning if they refuſe to Ravage all their Lands. 'Tis ſaid likewiſe, That the Heer Potoski is come over to the Swedes, and that the City of Zamoski, the only place almoſt in Poland that is regularly fortified, has open'd its Gates to them. The other 3 Bodies march, one through the Palatinate of Lublin; the other towards Great Poland; and the third advances towards this City along the Viſtula. The King of Sweden, who has been a long time at Janowits near Sendomir, is with this laſt Body. The Nobility of the Palatinate of Lublin, ſent Deputies to him, to deſire him to moderate the Contributions he demanded of them; to whom he return'd this Anſwer, That as long as they continue in the Sentiments they are in at preſent, he would alter nothing of what was regulated. There is a Report, That this Prince has publiſh'd Circulatory Letters, inviting all the Senators to come to this City, to conſult of the preſent State of Affairs; but there is none arriv'd yet. The Advices from the Ukrain tell us, That the Coſſacks do not ravage the Country any longer, ſince the Army of the Crown is advanc'd near them; They have drawn themſelves into one Body, the better to defend themſelves; and make Preparation to continue their Hoſtilities. General Paley, chief of the Coſſacks, who took the Fortreſs of Bialacerkiew, has ſent to acquaint the Great Chamberlain, that he is ready to deliver it up to the Czar, or the Republick, when the King of Poland and the Republick are Friends again, exhorting him to endeavour to forward that Union; this encreaſes the ſuſpicions, that the Coſſacks were excited to revolt by that Prince. 'Twas ſaid the King of Poland would come hither, but the approach of the Swedes has made him change his Deſign, and now they talk that not being in a Condition to make any reſiſtance, becauſe of the Detachment of 10 Regiments that is gone into the Emperor's Service, he has reſolv'd to go to Wilna in Lithuania. The four Regiments he ſent into Lithuania, have join'd Oginski and his Adherents, of whoſe Forces there are 40 Companies moving this way, but their deſign is not known, probably it is to favour the March of the King of Poland. Some Saxon Troops have entered by force into the City of Poſnania, which has irritated afreſh the Nobility of Great Poland againſt them, and 'tis ſaid the Palatine of Poſnania is drawing Forces together to drive them out. The Cardinal Primate having receiv'd a Letter from the Court of France, to enquire whether the Republick were concern'd in the carrying off the Marqueſs du Heron, and the detention of the Marqueſs de Bonnac; his Eminency has taken ſome time to anſwer it; mean while the Deputies of the Convention held at Lemberg have deſir'd him to repreſent to the King of France, nor only that the Republick had no hand in that Violation of the Rights of Nations; but on the contrary, was much diſpleas'd at it.

Warſaw, Jan. 23. Several Senators have not only proteſted againſt the Reſolutions of the Diet at Thorn, but are likewiſe for having them all annull'd, and the Imperial Mediation rejected. The Great Treaſurer of Lithuania, Sapieha, will not hear of any Treaty, which, he ſays, can ſignify nothing when the King has Power to break it.

Dantzick, Jan. 31. Letters from Thorn ſay, the King of Poland will go from thence within 2 or 3 Days, but whether is uncertain. There are 4000 Saxons in that City and thereabouts. The Guard of 250 Pruſſians, which the King gave to the Cardinal Primate, is order'd 'tis ſaid to leave him and return home.

Private Letters from Madrid, give a particular Account of the great Rejoycings made by the People in all Places thro' which the King of Spain paſs'd in his way to Madrid. All the Towns have aſſur'd him, that they will exert their utmoſt Efforts, to contribute to the great Charge he is oblig'd to be at for carrying on the War; and the Clergy have engag'd to levy 20000 Men for the Security of the Coaſts.

They have begun at Naples to coin Money with the Effigies of Philip V. Several Soldiers that were put in Priſon for having a hand in the Tumults excited by the Ringleaders of the laſt Conſpiracy, have been condemn'd to ſerve the King in Garriſons remote from this City, whither they will be conducted: And the Viceroy has rewarded ſome Officers, who diſtinguiſh'd themſelves by their good Behaviour at that time.
